- The class will be held in my home in the East Falls neighborhood of Philadelphia.
- Lodging options will depend on whether you have a car or will be using public transportation.
- The SEPTA Regional Rail has a stop in East Falls and is about a 15 minute ride from Center City Philadelphia. (You can also take a bus, but that takes significantly longer.)
- The closest hotels to East Falls are the Hilton Philadelphia City Avenue and the Courtyard by Marriott Philadelphia City Avenue. You would need a car if staying there.
- There are many hotel options in Center City Philadelphia; however, if you are driving, parking could be expensive. If you are not driving, staying in Center City and taking the commuter train to East Falls would work well.
- If you are open to an airbnb rental (www.airbnb.com), there are lots of options at reasonable prices. You should search Philadelphia: Center City, East Falls, Manayunk, and Roxborough for close places. Center City and East Falls would be easy to do without a car.
- Depending on your preferences, check things out on the Internet and send your questions to me. I can let you know about neighborhoods, distances, and travel. If this is too confusing for you, just send me an email with your preferences and I can help you find a good place to stay.
